ITA's Mission

Enable our customers' mission success within the NCR DoD community by delivering IT products and services based on identified requirements

Partner Engagement

The U.S. Army Information Technology Agency (ITA) is eager to establish business relationships with industry and mission partners to support ITA's business objectives and strategy.

What is the Purpose of Partner Engagement?

ITA Partner Engagement (PE) identifies industry services and capabilities that align with ITA's mission needs to build a more modernized and innovative defense IT agency. As the liaison between ITA and industry partners, the PE team, through standardized interaction, enables the agency to obtain or deliver capabilities necessary for mission success.

Where We Are Headed

Customer-Focused Features

- Multiple End–User Computing Devices: Offer levels of service and capabilities across multiple devices
- Bring Your Own Device (BYOD): Enable personal devices with a secure "sandbox" for official business
- Full Mobility and Presence: Maintain customer capabilities and services regardless of location
- Self–Service Ordering: Fully automate workflows to enable self-service features for the customer

Infastructure Focused Features

- Elastic Infrastructure: Dynamically scale infrastructure to meet demand
- Single Authoritative Digital Identity: Master data management for PII
- Multiple Personas: Connect credentials and attributes to personas facilitating multifactor authentication
- Virtualized Infrastructure and Client Services: Enable device agnostic client access to services via dynamic provisioning

Benefit of ITA Vendors

- Encourage a competitive environment for innovative IT products and services that help optimize and modernize ITA
- Create opportunity for ITA to explore and take part of cutting-edge technology
- Spark creativity to encourage and enable workforce agility
- Execute Mission Success.

Vendor Briefings

Vendor briefings provide a platform to showcase services and capabilities to the ITA Workforce. The goal of the vendor briefings is for industry partners to provide pertinent and specific information to demonstrate how their service/capability aligns to ITA's initiatives and business requirements. To request a briefing, demonstration or presentation with ITA Partner Engagement, please complete the Partner Registration form at, http://ita.army.mil/OCTO/PartnerRegistrationForm.aspx.
